

I support the the proposed changes. I have more problems with children seeing gun violence on the TV than seeing a naked human body. I also have no problem with the F word.