

Please do not lift the bans on vulgarity and smut. We would like to have you maintain at least the standards that are in place. They have weakened enough over the years. Lowering standards is not progress. If the programming had quality content in the first place it wouldn't need to lower their descriptive language.

Thank you,