

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief or "fleeting."

The Supreme Court has confirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies regarding expletives and nudity, especially during times when children are likely to be watching or listening. My children and I enjoy watching television together - as long as it is appropriate for them. I know that I am ultimately responsible for what my family watches on tv, but please don't make my job of parenting more difficult than it already is, by having to constantly "police" television shows.

I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.
