

It has come to my attention that the FCC is considering changes to its current standards on nudity and use of expletives on television and radio. Please do not do this. As a Christian mother and grandmother, I want wholesome entertainment for everyone, but especially for the youth of our country. Please try to uphold the current FCC standards so that our kids will see and hear good moral entertainment.

Thank you,
Suzy Tillett