

I am disappointed to think the FCC would even consider lowering the decency requirements for TV & radio. I believe this wonderful country has taken a moral downturn in the past decade but this would really put morality in the sewer.

Please, for all that is decent, take a strong stand against those that would further deteriorate the fiber of our society.