

I urge you to not allow the F word and nudity on public television and radio. Please do not change your current FCC indecency standards. Please take a stand against lowering the bar for indecency in radio and television. Thank you and I hope you take these comments seriously.