

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief or "fleeting."

The Supreme Court has confirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies regarding expletives and nudity, especially during times when children are likely to be watching or listening.

Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest and I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.

At a time when our country's morality is declining rapidly this would be a huge mistake. There are enough crimes against women and putting soft porn on tv is very detrimental to our country and our young people.

Honestly, what are you thinking?

We watch little tv now. If this goes into effect we will not be watching any.
