

How appalling that this should even be up for debate. It's bad enough that I can't walk through the mall or even a parking lot without having to hear all the garbage talk or see the nearly naked people, but at least I could watch TV.

Now am I to understand that common decency will be removed from

The mainstream media as well? To what benefit? That poor speech should be so widely accepted?

That the objectivism of woman should be so common place?

Disgusting! Please don't do this to or society.
