

There are plenty of sources of raunchy, lewd, and amoral entertainment already. Please do not lower the standards of broadcast television any lower than you currently have. It is presently hard to find anything of value to watch on TV. Our family is finding other ways to spend our time and will expand our search wider if the fear of hearing or seeing offensive things while "flipping through" increases. Let TV be a hold out for good family entertainment.