

I am against the proposed changes to of FCC standards to allow profanity or nudity to be broadcast over television and radio stations for all to hear and see.

This type of change would have a negative affect on our children and society as a whole. Let us at least maintain some level of decency and protect ourselves and our young.