

Please take the conservative position and disallow the use of any language that is not currently allowed on public tv broadcasts. It will serve no credible purpose to allow such language and I believe it should be withheld from young children who are not yet emotionally mature enough to handle such language as it inevitably will become their acceptable language. Additionally, the crudness of our culture is ever increasing and, though a minor step, a new liberality would feed that crudity. Thank you.