

I cannot believe you want to subject our children to more vulgarity. Why can't we protect their innocence. If this will be the standard then tv will no longer have my intrest and i know many more people will feel the same. Your profits and ratings will go down. I am so appalled. And the same people who want to allow this will complain when country fails and everyone is such a heathen. Have some standards.