

I urge the FCC to take action to ban nudity and the "f" word and others commonly referred to as smut. This is just part of actions required to change our society to the quality that used to be.