

I vehemently oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards (which are already too lax as far as I am concerned!!) that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief or "fleeting." The Supreme Court has confirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies regarding expletives and nudity, especially during times when children are likely to be watching or listening. In today's world, there is no "safe" time for allowing expletives or nudity because kids have access to TV all the time (with DVRs and HULU and other such devices). Relaxing the current policy would most definitely NOT serve the public interest! I am only one voice, but I am one of millions that feel that our society's moral values are careening out of control, and this would just be one more strike against us! I beg you to reconsider and outright reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations! Thank you for your consideration!
