

I oppose changes to the FCC guidelines that would allow explicit content, whether that be language or nudity, to be on radio or television broadcasts available to the general public. Children should not be exposed to this indecency and I strongly urge the FCC to keep their policies the intact and reject this or similar, future proposals.