

I am strongly against changing the FCC indecency standards. I do not want my children exposed to "trash talk" nor forms of nudity especially when they are up and awake and might accidentally tune into such a program. Relaxing our standards in these matters would not make our country better it would make it worse! Please do not lessen the standard!

sincerely,

Linda Ramsey