

Please keep the decency standards in place. Full nudity and explitives do not need to be on broadcast TV. This is especially true during times when children are primarily watching. I am against removing the decency standards.