

There is no need to have such foul language and nudity in non-premium television. If people desire this type of entertainment they can obtain it through the literally hundreds of channels available and the Internet. This is just another problem that we, as parents will need to guard against. There is no positive result of this coming to pass. Please do not allow this to happen. Thank you for your time.