

I strongly urge the FCC to REJECT any proposal that would allow for expletives and nudity to be broadcast over public airwaves to TV or radio stations. It is sickening enough that our children & grandchildren are exposed to filth through music over the radio or pouring out of the car next to us at a traffic light, no wonder more & more households are becoming "TV free". Relaxing your current policy would further endanger the health of our society.