

Please do not change the current FCC regulations on improper language and expletives on radio and television. We do not like hearing vulgarity over the airways and TV. Our children should not be exposed to this pollution either. Our country is becoming insensitive to profane words and acts and indecent behavior.