

Humanity needs to continue to grow by discontinuing antiquated beliefs that have no basis for existing except through religious dogma. Allowing nudity in visual media is one such step.

I support the proceeding to allow nudity and expressive language, that was previously considered obscene, to be used in all forms of media that this agency administers.

I think this is an important issue and I appreciate the FCC discussing it.

Thank you,
Patrick C.