

Please do not submit to the email and write in campaign undertaken to combat a forward thinking policy change. I support the rule changes that have been proposed to the standards of decency. Let's join the rest of the civilized world in setting our own standards of decency and allowing the citizens of this great nation to choose for themselves.