

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to express my opposition to any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief or "fleeting."

The Supreme Court has confirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies regarding expletives and nudity, especially during times when children are likely to be watching or listening. Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest.

I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations and to continue to act in the interest of America's youngest citizens, who already grow up too fast.

Thank you very much.
