

I support any and all changes to current FCC standards that broaden what is acceptable for stations to broadcast, including expletives and nudity.

Censorship and limitations should be done in the home by those that want it, not imposed at the source. Technology today easily allows for this. Those that choose to restrict content in their home can do so without imposing on their neighbors.

PLEASE DO NOT BEND TO THE AFA's email campaign.