

I understand that the FCC is considering relaxing (more like taking away) indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if briefly. I strongly disagree with this proposal! The Supreme Court has confirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies regarding expletives and nudity, especially during times when children are likely to be watching or listening. Shows like "The Good Wife" on CBS (on Sunday evening of all days) already show sex acts and profanity. They start off okay in order to "hook" viewers, then go "off the rails". It angers me that my children and grandchildren might be watching this filth. The worst thing (maybe second worst, after allowing lawyers to air ads) that ever happened to this country was getting rid of the television censors years ago. It opened up the airwaves to public pornography in a big way. Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest and I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations. It's bad enough that it is allowed on pay-per-view channels!
