

I am a believer in free speech, however I feel we have become a over sexed and lewd nation. I would never say curse words around anyone especially children. And I remember I time that NO ONE said curse words in front on women or children. I think if we can't show our bodies in public without getting arrested then why can celebrities get paid to do what we would go to jail for. Please keep the language clean and the bodies dressed.