

Please do not change decency laws regarding nudity and the f-word for TV/Radio. I would prefer to not have to audit this type of behavior on my own, and would not agree to have it in my house. There is no legitimate reason to have the use of this word or the use of nudity on television/radio. There needs to remain some sense of decency in our society.