

If for no other reason to not pass this, why would you pass this and be responsible for the defilement of thousands and thousands of children. Who would want the guilt of this responsibility? Have we lost the last bit of morality. I can't believe this is the same country that I used to know. I beg you: do not do this evil to our children.