

I have heard that you are considering dropping the ban on the F word and nudity on radio and TV. Our culture is already headed in the wrong direction and this would certainly not help. I am strongly opposed to this taking place. The future of media will certainly be in jeopardy if this takes happens.
Sincerely, Darlene Carey