

I urge you to reject any changes to the present policy on censoring adult language and views during hours children would be watching tv.