

I support any and all changes to FCC indecency standards that allow television and radio stations to broadcast what they wish.

Staying with the current standards is censorship and puritanism imposed on the entire American populace.

Each station should be allowed to broadcast what they wish, and each person in America should be allowed to consume the media that they wish.

Thank you