

The time is now to revise outdated laws regarding nudity and so called "bad words" from being broadcast over the air and on television. Adults can decide for themselves what to enjoy and parents are responsible for choosing what is and is not appropriate for their children to watch and listen too.