

It is long overdue for us to join the rest of the world in having relaxed restrictions around what's shown on our airwaves.

Teaching American children that the narrow mindedness of a small segment of the population can control a nation is the wrong message to send. PLEASE DO NOT BEND TO THE AFA's email campaign.