

Please do what you feel is true to America.

My opinion on the issue is that censorship should not reflect the ideals of conservatives and that partial nudity and curse words should be allowed to be allowed on the airwaves and that censorship should be left up to adults in their direct control over their children (if any) and themselves as well as the manner in which they raise their children (if any).

-A fellow citizen.