

Individuals deserve the right to censor according to their own values and having a narrow minded segment of the population does not deserve the right to censor other people. Please continue to make these progressive steps towards a more common sense and unbiased definition of freedom.