

I support any and all changes to the current FCC indecency standards. The United States is one of the only countries with such strict censorship on television. I do not support the AFA's ignorant campaign to continue limiting the free speech of television stations and producers.