

I support any and all changes to FCC indecency standards that would allow nudity and profanity on public television and radio.

The beliefs of anti-freedom organizations such as the American Family Foundation have undermined artistic freedoms granted by the First Amendment for decades. Please consider the protection of our most basic rights.