

I oppose any change to the current policy restricting repetitive, intentional nudity and profanity, particularly during family viewing hours.