

Dear FCC,

Please do not allow the F-word, S-word and female frontal nudity to air on the web. I ask you, what overall public good will come of this. I have four small children and I'm trying to raise them in a society that is moral and decent and does not turn women into sexual objects. Please stand your ground. If you don't then who will.

Alyson Yoder