

It would be a shame if the ban is removed simply because children and Christians would be subject to nudity and fulgarity on regular tv. It's already bad enough.