

April 10, 2013

From:
Charlene Pulliam
509 Church St.
Stevensville, MT 59870

To:
The Federal Trade Commission
Washington, D.C.

RE: GN Docket No. 13-86

Comment:

The FTC should not change its policy to focus only on egregious cases of nudity and language on radio and television shows.

An offence should be caught and penalized severely the first time it happens.

Severe penalty will help to discourage similar and future offences, thereby automatically reducing the heavy workload of the commission.

Charlene Pulliam