

I strongly oppose this lowering of the decency standard that is under consideration. Allowing more nudity, the F-word, and the S-word is not beneficial nor necessary in any way or for anyone. The current law should stand as it is and this new proposal rejected.