

Dear Sirs, The level of decency is being pushed too far now, and the addition of vulgar language and decency in dress code is going too far. Where has common sense gone! Instead of loosening the standards, they need to be tightened if anything. I've seen too many movies in prime time when my young children are watching that are sending the wrong message to them about what is good and bad behavior, dress code and language I tell them not to use.