

Why allow our underage youth see/hear the worst side of society. Set them up to aim at the best examples of everything. Please, no more swearing and bad influence of TV in our homes, when it can be so uplifting and educational.