

I strongly oppose changing current decency standards to include expletives and nudity on public television and radio stations!

Please enforce the current standards to protect families and children! Allowing more indecencies betters no one and is actually harmful.

Please reject any proposals to change the current FCC standards!