

It is our job as adults to protect the innocence of children. Please keep a ban on nudity and profanity on TV shows during times that children would be surfing. These kids will be our future law makers someday. Keep their hearts pure and not hard.