

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves.

I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.

I hope you will reconsider not changing your current standards. What would be the purpose for relaxing these standards? It would not be beneficial to the families of America, and especially not to small children, pre-teens and teenagers to grow up watching nudity and hearing profanity on their TV's.

Thank you,
Sydney Watson
