

I am opposed to the FCC allowing nudity and profanity on public television. Sometimes the government must step up and keep the public from sinking to the lowest morals, as we did with racial segregation. My children are already attacked with nudity, profanity, and sex from music, movies, and advertising. Please keep public television clean.