

I oppose any nudity or bad language to air on television. So many young innocent children should not be seeing those things and hearing that kind of language. I know many people who will cancel their cable, including me if this happens.