

I am appalled that the FCC would consider lowering the decency standards for broadcasting in this country! If anything, the standards should be raised. I do not wish to watch programming that includes profanity or nudity or sexually explicit content. I no longer have children in my home, but I am the grandmother of 18 children, whom I adore. I do not want them to be exposed to filth on TV or other media either. Please keep decency standards and even make them stronger. Entertainment should strengthen families, because strong families are the backbone of this country.
